

Ending the Era of Nuclear Weapons; Legal & humanitarian imperatives for nuclear disarmament

Nuclear weapons pose a unique threat to humanity, in their capacity for indiscriminate devastation of human life, cultural property and the natural environment.

Please join us for a forum on the humanitarian impact of the use of nuclear weapons, with discussion on the legal issues surrounding disarmament, and a review of the way forward for states to contribute to the reduction and eventual elimination of nuclear arsenals.

Speakers include former Prime Minister Malcolm Fraser, Hiroshima survivor Junko Morimoto, Professor Ramesh Thakur (ANU), Dr Tilman Ruff (ICAN) and Dr Helen Durham (Australian Red Cross).

Date: Tuesday 5th July 2011
